The Echo

Presented by
The Senior Class
of
BLACK RIVER HIGH SCHOOL

Foreword and Staff

This is your Echo--a lasting record of your 1962 high school years. As the seniors depart from Black River High School, they leave a pattern of footsteps which honor their success, their disappointments, and their hardships. In these footsteps we learn to respect knowledge, competence, and to love wisdom. In the future, we hope to keep the year behind us commemorating through the pages of this book.

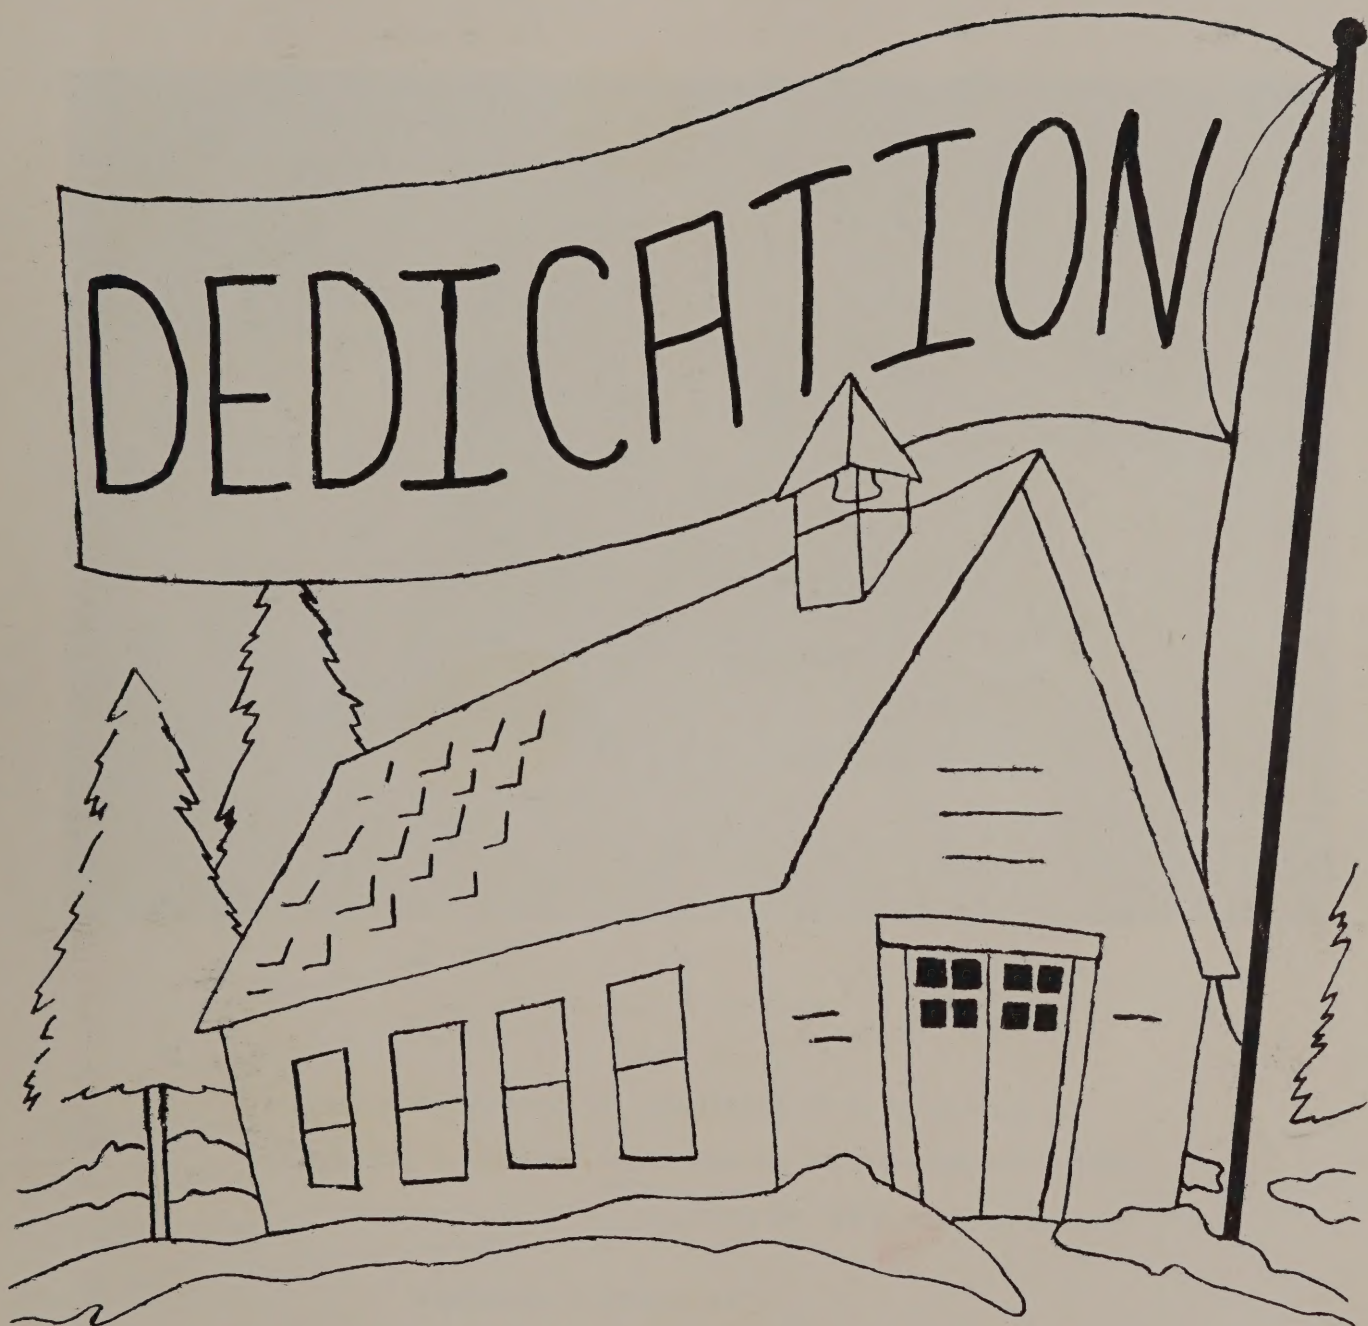

"Our todays make our tomorrow, and our present lives determine the bridge on which we must enter the next life."

Minot J. Savage

“Echoes Of Days Gone By”

In September of 1950, ten excited students entered the Halls of Knowledge at Sullivan for the first time. Those who started were: Janice Ballou, Donald Channel, Jerry Bauer, Eldon Barone, Mary Cowhick, Cheryl Elliott, Margaret Harris, Layton Meininger, Richard Pifer, and Marge Wright. We were under the guidance of Mrs. Rose Workman.

For the second grade we were divided into two rooms under the direction of Mrs. Rose Workman and Mrs. Alma Livingston.

When we reached the third grade, our class was reunited with Mrs. Alma Livingston as our teacher.

During our fourth year, Layton Meininger left our class. That year we had two teachers. Mrs. Freda Baker taught us during the first part of the year, and Mrs. Gladys Hassinger guided our class in the latter part.

The fifth grade found us once again divided into two groups with Mrs. Isabelle Clouser and Mrs. Freda Baker as our teachers. Lena Hollandsworth joined us at this time.

In the sixth grade, we were again united under the direction of Mrs. Verne Miller. Layton Meininger rejoined our class.

We finally reached our first exciting year of junior high with Miss Lillian Duncan as our home room advisor. Jim Given joined our class, and Margaret Harris left. As a class project for this year, we took a trip to Columbus to see the capital building and the Museum of Natural History.

Mr. Ronald Bowie, our home room teacher in the eighth grade, helped us plan our high school courses.

At last we had reached a main goal as freshmen. Our class welcomed Phyllis Haines, Martha Free, Elaine Querin, Carole Hawley, Joan Dague, Gail Britt, Jeff Keep, David McMillan, John Nesbitt, Gary Westervelt, Roy Leininger, and Donald Britt from Huntington. George Kish, Richard McConnell, and Carnetta Blankenship also joined our class. Margaret Harris returned to our ranks. Mr. Ronald Mack was home room advisor for our freshman and sophomore years. We won first place in the Christmas decorating contest during our freshman year. Both years we sold candy, had bake sales, and collected tax stamps.

On a bright, sunny morning in September, 1950, twelve students toddled into the first grade room at Albion to meet their teacher, Mrs. Helen Cupp. Those who struggled through our first together were: Robert Allen, Jim Botdorf, Tom McFrederick, Jack Grissinger, Elizabeth Jenkins, Marilyn Rowe, Judy Long, Margaret Geiger, Ann Shorts, Sue Schmetzer, Tom Brooks, and Ronald Wandel. After the first semester, Ronald Wandel left us and moved to West Salem.

In our second year, we were advised by Mrs. Margaret Sooy.

Mrs. Kathryn Soka was our teacher in the third grade. William Herrmann joined our class at this time.

In our fourth year, we moved to Homerville where we were under the direction of Mrs. Icle Campbell. We gave an operetta entitled, "Goldilocks and the Three Bears."

Mrs. Neva Lowe was our teacher in the fifth grade. Ronald Wandel rejoined the class, and Jim Gott came to our class from Spencer.

We were very fortunate to have Mrs. Helen Cupp back again in the sixth grade.

The seventh grade was a big jump; we had finally reached junior high school. It was quite an experience to change classes and have more than one teacher. Dick Crebs from West Salem joined us. Mr. E. B. Workman was our class advisor.

In our eighth year of school, Mr. Lou E. Tsipis was our advisor. Ted Fetzler joined the class from Strongsville, and Tom Brooks moved to Wellington.

High School! We had finally made it. Mr. Lous Tsipis was again our home room advisor. Our class project was selling magazines. During this year we put on a skit entitled, "Casey Coffins."

In our sophomore year, we had Mr. Lou Tsipis as our home room advisor. Robert Breyley joined our class in order to take F.F.A. Tom Brooks rejoined the class. We sold sweat shirts, pies, and Christmas cards and decorations during this year.

On a sunny fall day in September of 1950, seventeen eager, yet apprehensive students entered the first grade at Spencer School. They were: Carol Blake, Susan Boone, Robert Breyley, Gene Clifford, Andy Higgins, George Kish, Ted Kostecki, Bruce Miller, Peggy Myers, Lorelee Rook, Sharyn Scheck, Sam Simmerman, Francis Stuart, Harold VanMeter, Judy Walkden, Jim Gott, and Louise Baker.

Mrs. Hazel Parrott, our second grade teacher, welcomed Jean and Diane Hopkins from the Birmingham School to our class.

In the third grade, the teacher was Mrs. Sarah Clement.

At the beginning of the fourth year, two new students joined our class. They were: Irene Kozub who came to us from Valley City, and Basil Morehead who came to Spencer from Berea. Mrs. Bertha Rowe was our teacher.

Our fifth grade teacher was Mrs. Doris Kime, but because of illness, Mrs. Eunice Leach took her place. Dieter Storl joined us from Massillon.

In the sixth grade, the class was increased by Ken Byrd from North Canton and Joe Kobylski from Townsend-Wakeman. Our teachers during this year were: Mrs. Margarette Puderbaugh and Mrs. Olga Dattilo.

During the 1956-'57 school year, we took that all-important step to junior high school. Mrs. Olga Dattilo was our class advisor and home room teacher.

The following year our class was increased by Earnestine Hardin who came from Elyria. Mrs. Rosemary Stoll was our home room teacher.

We obtained the title of "freshman" in the 1958-'59 school year. Mr. George Gifford was our home room teacher.

Mr. Gifford was also our home room teacher during our sophomore year. During that year we sold candy, had bake sales, and had a slave day.

The Huntington first graders in 1950 were: Joan Dague, Martha Free, Phyllis Haines, David McMillan, John Nesbitt, Roy Leininger, Carole Hawley, and Elaine Querin. We were frightened beginners, but also were eager learners under Lucille Murray.

In the second year of trying work, we students learned more about "Alice and Jerry" and were introduced to the alphabet. Mrs. Gertrude Smith was our teacher.

The third grade brought quite a few changes to its constituents. Jeff Keep joined us this year. We studied a new English book, our first of that type, and received a fully lettered and numbered grade card. Mrs. Koons sought to educate us.

Our fourth, fifth, and sixth grade subjects were administered in many ways and by many different teachers because of illness. Each helped in the development of our minds and characters. Gail Britt and Gary Westervelt joined us in our fourth year.

The seventh and eighth grades were probably our hardest and most worth-while training periods. Donald Britt joined us in the seventh, and Mr. Orlando Shilts was our instructor.

The eighth grade was the end of our elementary education and the foundation for high school. Mrs. Mildred Rowland taught us this year.

Today there are the everlasting memories of a class play called "Goodnight Uncle George" and an eighth grade trip to Kelly's Island and Put-In-Bay with a drive-in movie to complete our trip.

At last, the long-awaited moment had arrived! Consolidation! New faces of people who were to be life-long friends. New adventures and new challenges! Our class projects during our junior year were: selling candy and magazine subscriptions, and holding paper drives. There were many eventful occasions that year, including the taking of the Iowa State Development Test; the serving of refreshments at the basketball games; the Junior-Senior Prom, the theme being "Over the Rainbow," with the Strine's Orchestra, and that wonderful day when we received our class rings. Janet Dagleish and Carol Foster joined our class at this time.

Then the year finally arrived; we were SENIORS! Everyone looked forward to those special days off for getting subscriptions and advertisements for the annual, and getting out of school to have our senior pictures taken. One of our major and most exciting achievements for the senior year was editing the annual, "The Echo." As class projects, we held a paper drive, sold stationery, sold refreshments at the football games, and sponsored a number of banquets and several dances for the enjoyment of the school board, teachers, parents, and friends.

We, as a class, chose our motto, flower, class colors, color of robes for graduation, and our invitations.

At the end of our long, tedious journey, we are finally about to take that great step out into the world. We are sincerely grateful to the superintendents, teachers, advisors, and parents for all they have done to give us this honor, and we hope that as we go our separate ways, we will live up to the standards set before us here, that were taught to us both by teachers and parents, and that we will carry them with us wherever life's path leads us. We only hope that we can return to these Halls Of Learning some day to recapture old memories of days gone by.

Class Poem

We're the class of "62,"
We all say "so-long" to you.
Before we start to roam,
We leave you with this poem.

Bob Allen doesn't have much to say,
But in the hall get out of his way!
For when Linda he's chasing,
Don't be in his pathway pacing.

Janice Ballou is the quiet type,
You never do hear this girl gripe!
In art, this gal's got what it takes,
Everyone praises the drawings she makes.

Louise Baker is quite cute,
At her the horns do toot.
When she is walking down the hall,
She is admired by one and all.

Eldon Barone drives a fast car,
In his Chevy he travels afar.
His ambition is to succeed,
May his success match his speed.

Jerry Bauer is a friendly guy,
He is rated really high.
Bowling is his favorite pastime,
And his scores are quite sublime.

Next comes friendly Carol Blake,
Who makes the most delicious cake.
This gal likes to joke and laugh,
She worked hard with the Echo staff.

Carnetta Blankenship's the name,
She has hair that's as bright as flame.
Always dressed in latest styles,
This cute girl wins many smiles.

Suzy Boone's sharp, pink T-bird,
Gets her around quite fast, we've heard.
Suzy's always lots of fun,
The heart of each of us she's won.

Jim Botdorf is our class president,
He really is the nicest gent.
When it comes to leadership,
This Botdorf guy is really hep.

Robert Breyley wants to please.
Every single one he sees.
In F.F.A. he's always there,
Trying his best to do his share.

Donald Britt, is very quiet,
Sometimes he's a real riot.
He thinks government class is neat,
Because he likes to go to sleep.

Gail Britt, a real smart lass,
Is at the head of business class.
Whenever there's work to be done,
Count on Gail as number one.

Tom Brooks is a talkative soul,
To be a lawyer is his goal.
He has an opinion on all the news,
And never fails to tell his views.

Ken Byrd likes to tinker with cars,
Mention a Chevy - his eyes are stars,
To English class he will gaily bound,
Where reading Motor Trend he's found.

Don Channel has the nickname "Red,"
His sense of humor is far from dead.
While "goofing off" in his home room,
The teacher gives him looks of doom.

"Enos" is Gene Clifford's nickname,
Basketball has won him fame.
This guy is clever, agile, and tall,
He knows just how to handle the ball.

Mary Cowhick quiet and petite,
Everyone thinks she is sweet.
Our Homemaker of Tomorrow is she,
And a beautician she wants to be.

Dick Crebs is a real brain,
For him Physics is no strain.
Manager of the Black River Post,
Everyone thinks that he's the most.

Joan Dague has a real neat form,
Her friendship is so very warm.
Quiet though she often is,
In shorthand she is a real whizz.

Janet Dagleish is a sweet little thing,
As Homecoming Queen she really did swing.
Whatever she does she'll be a success,
Because of her genuine friendliness.

Cheryl Elliott is a busy bee,
She's always on a new committee.
When Seniors have a rough job planned,
Cheerfully Cheryl lends a willing hand.

Carol Foster's a real cute chick,
We all think she's pretty slick.
She drives to school in her Ford which,
Quite often she gets into the ditch.

Ted Fetzner is a busy man,
Gives F.F.A. a helping hand,
And when to Buckeye he does go,
He takes his best girl to the show.

Martha Free is quite carefree;
Dresses neat as neat can be.
In class her rating is quite high,
And when you meet her, you'll know why.

Diane Hopkins in Business Law,
Is the best student you ever saw.
This gal works with speed and ease,
The teachers she is sure to please.

Margaret Geiger is petite,
To her classmates she is sweet.
She succeeds in every try,
And she has found that special guy.

Jean Hopkins with hair so light,
Says "Hi" to all those in sight.
Quiet and nice in all her ways.
We'll remember her the rest of our days.

James Given is a quiet lad,
Who really doesn't do so bad.
During school he walks around,
And often doesn't make a sound.

Liz Jenkins has a mind so keen,
Success for her we've forseen.
When this cute gal is a nurse someday,
All the doctors will look her way.

Jim Gott is next in line,
Linda thinks he's just fine.
In sports he's been a star,
We all think that he'll go far.

His knowledge is really steep,
You know him well, he is Jeff Keep.
On to college to gain his ambition,
Results to be a licensed physician

Jack Grissinger is known to all,
For his plays in basketball.
Though he's short and far from big,
This great guy we all dig.

George Kish is a happy lad,
You can be sure he's never sad.
This year's president of F.F.A.,
A successful guy, wouldn't you say?

Phyllis Haines comes next you see,
A nurse she thought she'd like to be.
Along came a flyer to change her desire,
But two years of college she'll acquire.

Joe Kobylski in history room,
Is often sprayed with perfume.
This guy is fun to have around,
He's loads of laughs so we've found.

Here's a girl that you have seen,
To all she's known as Ernestine.
To be a secretary is her aim,
We hope her fingers don't go lame.

Ted Kostecki is tall and slim,
You must look twice to see all of him.
The car he owns is a small foreign job,
But inside he'll haul quite a mob.

Margaret Harris is quite a gal,
To everyone she is a pal.
She's friendly and she's clever, too,
Beware of tricks she'll play on you.

Irene Kozub is a girl and a half,
She works on the newspaper staff.
Through all the day she's on the go,
She'll make sure the Post isn't slow.

The path of success she has certainly trod.
After school she has her plans,
To cook for Dick in pots and pans.

Judy Kurtz is quiet and polite,
Her wavy black hair is a pretty sight.
This nice gal is right in style,
As along she strolls wearing a smile.

Bill Herrmann wants to fly,
A jet or rocket through the sky.
In trig he is a whiz,
Such a smart student this guy is.

Roy Leininger, who drives his dad's car,
Tries to keep the engine up to par.
And when he gets behind the wheel,
He never drags or tries to peel!

Andy Higgins is very smart,
At homework he really does his part,
But don't you think that he's dull,
Because his wisecracks are far from null.

Richard McConnell is a rather tall guy,
Who seems quiet and sometimes shy.
He has a certain kind of trait,
And that's how to keep his hair straight.

Lena Hollandsworth from down Sullivan way,
Doesn't usually have much to say.
Although in height she is quite small,
Her friendly smile is nicest of all.

Tom McFredrick owns a blue chevy,
His accelerator foot gets quite heavy.
At the drag strip he's often found,
Even though he's college bound.

Dave McMillan, in algebra class,
Looks out the window when the rods pass.
This fellow who's known as Micky,
Performs feats in his car that are tricky.

Latyon Meininger still in his teens,
Wants to join the U. S. Marines.
Though already he plays rough,
When he comes out he'll really be tough.

Bruce Miller is a great guy,
His jokes at times gets a little dry.
Through his life he's gained many fans,
And for the future he had made plans.

Basil Morehead likes to trim a tree,
He knows everything from A to Z.
And when he is up there in the sky,
We hope he doesn't try to fly.

Peggy Myers makes good grades in school,
Always prompt is her rule.
This trim girl has short blonde hair,
And a complexion that is so fair.

John Nesbitt, often late for the bus,
Is liked by everyone of us.
Always merry this swell guy is,
Except when he sees an algebra quiz.

Rusty Pifer the guy whom each one knows,
Has a wisecrack handy wherever he goes.
Even so, we hope he'll do well,
If he doesn't, we'll never tell.

Elaine Querin is happy it seems,
Because she's found the man of her dreams.
This little cutie, with winning ways,
Will be happily wed for all of her days.

For our class she's done her share.
A great cheerleader she has been,
And sure has helped the Pirates win.

She is at the head of the class.
She's loads of fun and very witty.
Each joke she tells is a real ditty.

Makes sure of a prompt annual staff.
To him we owe a great debt,
Without him the deadline we'd never met.

Mrs. Dawley a wonderful teach,
Is thought to be a regular peach.
With temper mild and manners sweet,
Being in her class is a real treat.

Sharyn Scheck of the reserve cheering line
Gets along with her classmates just fine.
On her future we'll make a guess,
Whatever she chooses she'll be a success.

Sue Schmetzer's quite a gal,
When it comes to being a pal.
Always running to and fro,
You can be sure she's always on the go.

Ann Shorts has hair so blonde,
And of Dick she is really fond.
She is found on the cheerleading line,
The Pirates think she's really fine.

Sam Simmerman is an intelligent chap,
For him, classes are a real snap.
Although he is quite good in school,
Occasionally he breaks a driving rule.

He's wandered afar to distant shores.
This nature boy is strong and smart.
He's sharp in science, history, and art.

It's college for him in the fall.
To all of us he's quite a guy,
And his popularity is rated high.

Harold Van Meter is next in line.
At football he does just fine.
But in class sleepy Harold finds,
Most teachers like wakeful minds.

Judy Walkden with a dimpled smile,
Will win your heart in a very short while.
This playful pixie with flashing blue eyes,
To play tricks we know she often tries.

A tuba, Bud Wandel often does blow.
You'll hear his notes high and low.
While he's practicing in the afternoon,
You can hear this cat blow a jazzy tune.

Gary Westervelt in his sleek blue Ford,
Often takes several pals aboard.
Then Westy steps hard on the gas,
And every object in his path, he'll pass.

Mr. Gifford, our teacher of science,
Will always act with compliance.
In chem and biology he's really wise,
This smart man is a real prize.

Mr. Ulmer teaches our government class,
At preparing notes, none could surpass.
His assignments are right up to date,
And to the classroom he's never late.

In the hall we often see
Marge Wright,
Carrying a big case, as if it were light.
When someone asks what's inside,
"My saxophone" she'll answer with pride.

Senior Class Prophecy

Once upon a time, late at night, two young eager authors sat on a table pondering. They were searching and reaching for the twilight zone to get an inspiration. As they were sitting there in disgust with no enlightened thought, the maid served the tea, which our hardy authors readily lapped up. As they were sipping the refreshing brew, their sleepless eyes were inadvertently drawn to the pot. A strange white vapor rose from it. It quivered and twisted in a lifelike fashion. The young men's eyebrows raised in astonishment, for from the steam a voice was heard.

One of the authors looked at his companion. "Eh, Joe, did you hear. . . ."

"Yea, ha, it must be our overworked minds!" he laughed.

The vapor shook violently as if angered, and now the two astonished scholars seemed to hear a voice.

The taller of the two laughed, "Once I heard a story about a genie, "he started, "this crazy smoke reminds me of it. Anyway this guy found this lamp and he said to it, "Oh, Genie, Oh, Genie, bring me some . . . .er. . . .pretzels."

Suddenly, before their astonished eyes in a puff a silver platter filled with choice pretzels appeared.

"Good grief!" they exclaimed in amazement.

One of the astonished authors caught heart again, stuttering, "G-G-Genie, d-do you grant w-wishes?"

"Master, thy wish is my command!" was the reply heard from the vapor which by now had taken the form of a huge muscular, turbaned Indian.

They both got their courage back and asked the Genie to give them an inspiration.

"What be the inspiration thou wanteth?"

"To look into the future," they blabbered forth in unison.

"Whose future?"

"The future of the people we like best of all."

"Ah, that must be the class of '62," answered the Genie with a broad smile.

"How did you guess?"

"I know all things!"

And so the misty curtain of the future was drawn away and here is what they saw:

BOB ALLEN, one of Ohio's leading Senators, has just set a new filibustering record of 48 hours, 10 minutes, and 3 seconds. LOUISE BAKER is the chief air-line hostess on the TPA Trans-Planet Airlines. MARGARET GEIGER is now busily engaged in rearing contestants for that ever popular program "Romper Room." JAMES GIVEN always was a whiz at bookkeeping, and still is, only now he's keeping books for the horses. PHYLLIS HAINES is now busily employed in the Hawaiian Travel Burea. Phyllis' main job is distributing leis to tourists. MARGARET HARRIS is now taming wild stallions for Slop Along Cassidy. CAROL HAWLEY who is now head of Foreign Affairs has just returned from a trip to Latin America. BILL HERRMANN is now one of the pilots on the Heckle and Jeckle cartoon show. ANDY HIGGINS is now in charge of Cape Canaveral and is designing a new space ship for faster traveling. JUDY KURTZ AND LENA HOLLANDSWORTH have moved to Italy and are in the process of establishing "Kurtz a Lena's Pizza House." LIZ JENKINS has recently been named the Florence Nightingale of 1982. JEFF KEEP who is a professor at Harvard University has just disproved Einsteins' theory on relativity. GEORGE KISH has recently invented an automated chicken and has made a million on his eggs. IRENE KOZUB is now the top Commanding Sergeant for the "Waves." Her new slogan is "If you can't lick'em, join 'em! ROY LEININGER is now a world famous stock car dirver. RICHARD McCONNELL, the Secretary of Agriculture, is in there trying! TOM McFREDERICK is appearing in the top TV show of the year-"Dr. Max Casey." MARILYN ROWE and DAVE McMILLAN are now happily married and have settled in Homerville where they are raising their little "M & M's." DICK CREBS, LAYTON MEININGER and TED FETZER are members of the private eye team called "Surfside Three." BRUCE MILLER is now in Africa chasing boomerangs that won't come back. Bruce is said to be a disgrace to the (Aborigine) race. BASIL MOREHEAD was the first "cat" to fall off the hot tin roof. PEGGY MYERS, after studying at Vassar, is now teaching Latin classes on the moon. JOHN NESBETT has finally settled down and is teaching Vocational Agriculture at Balck River High School and is rearing happy little farmers of his own. RUSTY PIFER has become the yo-yo champion of Medina County. EARNESTINE HARDEN, DEANE AND JEAN HOPKINS are currently starring in television's newest comedy program, "My Three Daughters." ELAINE QUERIN is now a secretary to a newly established mill in Sullivan called "David Liedorff and Sons." MARJORIE WRIGHT, SUE SCHMETZER AND BUD WANDEL are the leading members of a newly-formed band and are currently providing the music for "Yours for a Toot." ANN SHORTS has just developed a new style in the beauty field-Strawberry blonde hair-"For those who think young." DIETER STORL who is now a forest ranger at Jellystone National Park, is trying to teach Yogi Bear how to play the C# harmonica. JIM GOTT, BEEZER STUART AND JACK GRISSINGER have recently replaced the Kingston Trio and call themselves the "Rumblers Three." HAROLD VAN METER is a famous inventor. His latest invention is Van Meter's four speed ice skates. GARY WESTERVELT is no longer tearing up the highways, he's air born. You'll recognize him as the famous "Mighty Mouse." SHARYN SCHECK is a leading soprano in the Metropolitan Opera, plans to teach her four daughters to follow in her footsteps. SAM SIMMERMAN was last year elected as the Governor of River Corners. JUDY WALKDEN, LORALEE ROOK AND JANET DALGLEISH are now head nurses at General Hospital under Dr. Max Casey.

Then the mighty voice stopped, but the inquisitive authors wanted to know more of the future.

"Eh, how about telling us what the teachers will be doing?" burst forth one of the scholars.

And again the noble Genie lifted the curtain of the future:

"They all will have ulcers, as scars of their noble service. And the lofty ideals imported upon the very special few, the class of '62 will be a monument to their success."

"Thanks Genie," said one of them sipping on his tea, which was cold by now, "how about doing something for us now?"

"Yes," said the taller of the two, "bring us a truck load of gold."

"It grieves me, masters, but you have your three wishes, and I must depart now," he replied.

"We didn't have three wishes!" they refuted.

"Oh yes, first the pretzels on a silver platter, then the future of the favorite few, and finally the future of the teachers."

Before they could say more, the strange visitor vanished into the pot, as suddenly as he had appeared.

In amazement they looked into the teapot, only to find a few drops of cold tea left.

River at High Tide For Highland Clash

Black River's hungry Pirates, seeking that first victory over a Medina county football team, came awful close to getting it at Highland, Friday night. Grinding out 411 yards (net gain), completing 14 of 30 passes and scoring 8 points, the Rivermen gave it a good try. Unfortunately for them, and fortunately for a large Highland field-dedication crowd, the Hornets had a 175-pound sophomore back who was crossing the goal line as often as the Pirates were. The

The Pirates split both ends about four or five yards and flanked both halfbacks, giving them a lot of room for pitchouts and passes. Even though warned the Pirates would throw, the Hornets couldn't cope with the air attack. They allowed 17 completions if you count the three conver-

Rivermen Counting On Hit-and-Run

If the 1-0 win over Ashland J...ees last week is any indication, Black River will be fielding a hit-and-run diamond combine this season.

The Pirates picked up the game's only tally in the initial frame, keeping singling and stealing second. Little John Regal then dropped the ball down the base-line, K...printing all the way home on a hit-out at first.

Tom McFredericks, who worked the first three innings, was the winning hurler, Jack Grisinger and Loren Hastings adding to the staff in the last two innings for Black River.

LIKE their varsity brothers, the pirate apprentices also moved to first place by taking their second two-point decision from the yearlings. Also, as in the game, the young Bucks were
